Hi all!

A big welcome to all our new members! We have been out and about having a ball as usual. Our Elmar's lunch was well attended and everybody had a fab Sunday arvo. A little birdie told me that some people were still partying at 6.30pm! Great effort!!! The same can be said for the Black Swan Winery where the brilliant Brenton entertained us until well into the afternoon.

BONUS FUNCTION! SAVE $29!
Pre-book Dinner n Dancing
@ Villa Picasso and come along to our Party @
The Publican for FREE!!

The Big Hoo Haa also didn't disappoint. In fact, I think it was one of the funniest nights out we have had. We all loved our dinner at Big Chef too. Danny did an awesome job keeping us well fed and the gorgeous belly dancer was fabulous. She had lots of "volunteers" up for a shake and a shimmy. We will definitely be re-visiting in a few months.

I think we've finally said goodbye to the long hot Summer and we have a lot of FUNctions in our calendar to keep us active when the cold weather hits. One of the alternatives to our Raffles parties includes after work mixers at the Pagoda. This venue has all the style of Raffles with the added bonus of free parking and live music! The other place we can't wait to visit is the Village. The old Ess Bar has had a huge overhaul and the result is a stunning new venue. Come and see if you agree with the brilliant reviews this place has been getting.

We are heading back to the Black Swan Winery to see Brenton again - along with his wonderful partner in crime, Kelly. Some of you will remember these two from our days at Frenchy's. They never fail to hit the right notes and get us all up dancing and enjoying ourselves. So ... don't miss out! Book in and come and support these two top entertainers.

I'm also very excited about the new Cocktail Creation Nite we have planned at the Universal. We will have a blast with Jason teaching us how to mix up cocktails and maybe even invent some new ones! Come on down and join in the fun!

Well ... that's all for now folks! I hope to see you out and about with us soon. TTFN.
